

Year 2 – Autumn 2

English	Maths	Art
To independently use a capital letter at the start of each sentence.	I can recognise 2D Shapes.	Using a paint app edit a photo in the style of Stanley Chow.
To independently use a full stop at the end of each sentence.	I can recognise 3D Shapes.	PE
I can write a storm poem inspired by King Lear.	Count sides on 2-D shapes.	I can make a sequence of movements
To independently use apostrophes within mt writing.	Count vertices on 2-D shapes.	PSHE
To independently write command sentences.	Draw 2-D shapes.	I understand how to work towards my dreams and goals.
To independently use adverbs to describe.	I recognise coins .	RE
To use adjectives to add description to their work.	I recognise notes.	What is most important for different people ?
To produce an information poster.	I can compare amounts of money.	Computing
	I can make a pound.	I understand the use of digital photography.
	I can find change.	Music
		Singing with Warwickshire sing.

Year 2 – Autumn 2

Science	Geography
The scientific skills taught in this topic:	Name the 7 continents of the world.
Interpreting and communicating results. Recording data. Carry out simple tests and evaluate tests.	Name the 5 oceans.
Objectives:	Name the four capital cities of the UK
To describe the importance for humans of exercise, eating the right amounts of different types of food, and hygiene.	I know some human and physical features of the UK.
To find out about and describe the basic needs of animals, including humans, for survival (water, food and air)	To find out how to use an atlas.
	I can name characteristics of the capital cities in the UK
Our scientific questions are:	I can use locational language.
Why is hygiene important? How does exercise effect your body ?	I create a map with a simple key.